

BUSHRA MUHAMMADI

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNER & PROJECT MANAGER

818.693.0961

bushra.muham@gmail.com

RELEVANT SKILLS

Project Management: Lead multiple projects, consistently meeting integrated design and planning goals, budgets, and schedules.

Stakeholder Relations: Maintain excellent relationships with clients, builders, governing authorities, stakeholders, and team members, contributing to a collaborative work environment.

Integrated Design: Collaborate with design teams to create innovative design solutions aligned with project objectives.

License and Certificates: Actively pursuing architectural license and LEED accreditation.

AI in Architecture: AI integration, parametric modeling, generative design, BIM automation, sustainable analysis, AI visualization, and custom AI tool development.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Arch. Research Symposium Participant
April 09, 2020

Integrative Research Practice | University of Southern California, SOA, Los Angeles, California
Presented my research poster on DTLA 2076: Carbon Dioxide Reappraised.

Architectural Intern
May 2019-August, 2019
Aaron Neubert Architects, Los Angeles, California

Charrette Participant
May 08-10, 2017

6' Atrium Structure Charrette | University of Southern California, SOA, Los Angeles, California
Teamed with three others to construct a floating oceanic habitat for birds, humans, and marine life.

Job Shadow Participant
2014-2015
Jared Bradding, Manager of Asia-Pacific Development | Government of Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development (D.F.A.I.T), Gatineau, Quebec

Competition Participant
March 15-16, 2013
Rethinking Victoria Island, Chaudière Falls competition | Izrieli School of Architecture
Carleton University, Ottawa, Canada
Reconnected and Revitalized a previously designated heritage site with neighboring public space.

OBJECTIVE

Dedicated Senior Architectural Designer with a demonstrated history of effectively managing project goals and schedules. Seeking to apply my expertise and experience to enhance your dynamic team, all while nurturing robust client and stakeholder relationships.

EXPERIENCE

DFH Architects San Monica, California
June 2025-Present

- + Leading an expedited Palisades Fire rebuild projects while having led the RFQ and proposal for a townhome project in a fire rebuild zone that was successfully awarded.

NEO & Associates San Marino, California
Feb 2021-May 2024

- Architectural Designer and Project Manager
- + Draft architect-client agreements, outlining project scope, services, and terms, enhancing project collaboration.
 - + Nurture strong relationships with clients, builders, authorities, stakeholders, and the team, leading to improved client satisfaction ratings.
 - + Effectively align integrated design and planning with client expectations and project objectives for diverse architectural projects.
 - + Streamline bidding and contractor collaboration, manage RFIs, construction administration, and field update design changes for clients.

Architectural Designer Feb 2020-Feb 2021

- + Collaborated with project managers and design teams to contribute to integrated design solutions that met project goals and client expectations.

EDUCATION

Master of Architecture Los Angeles, California
2017-2020

First Professional | University of Southern California, SOA
Emphasis in American Architecture and Urbanism, Certificate in Building Science

Bachelor of Arts, Honors Ottawa, Canada
2012-2016

Carleton University,
Major in History and Theory of Architecture, Minor in American Sign Language

PUBLICATIONS

CORVUS: The Journal of the Carleton University Classics Society (2016 Volume)
Underwater research fieldwork

<http://scalar.usc.edu/works/rene-laliques-glass/index>

Essay on Rene Lalique's Glass Factory Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

<https://cuportfolio.carleton.ca/view/view.php?t=VWI8klm0HchaKEDyeG2z>

Blog about my Underwater Research in Spain and Italy (Under Iberian Peninsula)